

Information for Bankruptcy Education Clients

Purpose of Course

The Bankruptcy Education Course is provided to help you develop knowledge and skills in personal financial management. The course will provide information on the following topics:

- Budget development
- Money management
- Wise use of credit
- Consumer information

Schedule and Location of Courses

Insert schedule and location of courses here.

Fees and Registration

- Participants are required to pre-register for the course by contacting

Insert local educator contact information

- The fee for the course is $40 per case if you preregister by the deadline or $60 per case at the door. Your Trustee's office may be providing your class. In this case the class is free.
- The registration fee must be paid using cash or money order.
- If you register for a course and are not able to attend, you may make up the course within three months without paying an additional fee.
- You will need to bring proof of identification (photo ID) and your bankruptcy case number with you to the course.

Your Instructor

- Your instructor is an experienced professional Extension educator with specific training from the University of Tennessee Department of Family & Consumer Sciences.
- The University of Tennessee Extension is approved to issue certificates evidencing completion of a personal financial management instructional course in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of a Provider's services.

Other Information

- Upon completion of the course, The University of Tennessee Extension will provide a certificate of course completion to you.
- The University of Tennessee Extension does not pay or receive fees or other consideration for the referral of debtor students to its courses.
- The course is offered to debtor students without regard to the student's ability to pay.