

Setting Limits

1. Only set limits about important things.

2. Be reasonable.

3. Make sure limits are clear.

4. Be consistent.

5. Change limits as children grow older.

6. Let the children help in setting some limits.

7. Talk to your children about why you have limits.

8. Be able to enforce your limits.